

The Major Farm (Stangeland's)

Janet Stangeland's grandfather, George Major established his 160 acre farm, 2 miles south of Stanwood, in 1883. The farm produced hay, grain, pasture and dairy animals. Today the Stangeland's run a dairy and produce silage and cow corn on the 63 acres still retained.

Owners: Janet & Louis Stangeland

Above: Inside the barn
Right: George Major milking

