

The Ricci Farm

Owner: Ted and Darrell Ricci

Above: Michael Ricci Family ca. 1910

Right: Barn, built by Michael Ricci
still stands in 2003

The Ricci Farm was founded in the year Washington achieved statehood, 1889. Darrell and Ted Ricci's grandfather, Michael, was an Italian immigrant, having arrived in this country in 1880. The Ricci home was well-known in the community as the polling place for many decades in the middle of the last century. The farm began with an extensive orchard and dairy operation. It continues now by producing dairy heifers.

