PRESS RELEASE

SUPERIOR COURT WARNS OF JURY DUTY SCAM

Snohomish County Superior Court and the Snohomish County Clerk's Office are warning the public to be aware of a scam involving jury service.

The Clerk's Office recently received information from a citizen reporting he received a phone call from a male verifying his personal information.

The citizen was informed by a male caller that he failed to appear for jury duty and needed to verify his name, social security number, and place of employment. The male caller correctly recited the citizen's last four digits of his Social Security number and knew where the citizen worked. When the citizen attempted to call the number back, the number did not work.

The citizen had not been summoned for jury duty and was surprised and confused by the call.

Snohomish County Superior Court and the Clerk's Office does not contact potential jurors and ask for personal information such as Social Security numbers. If you receive one of these phone calls, do not provide any personal or confidential information to these individuals as it may be an attempt to commit identity theft.

If you have received one of these calls and were asked to verify personal information, please call 911.
