

PRESS RELEASE

Snohomish County

9 October 2008

County Council

Council Seeks 7% & 9% Budget-Cut Strategies as Revenue Forecasts Continue to Decline

Mike Cooper
Dave Gossett
John Koster
Dave Somers
Brian Sullivan

County general fund departments and offices will be making presentations to the county council's budget panels on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 14, 15 and 16 in the second phase of the council's rigorous review process in preparing the county's 2009 budget.

M/S #609
3000 Rockefeller Avenue
Everett, WA 98201-4046
425-388-3494
FAX 425-388-3496
TTY/TDD 425-388-3700

In the face of worsening revenue forecasts for next year, the council has requested departments and offices to present recommendations for reducing their proposed individual budgets by seven and nine percent.

The public can attend these panel meetings or view them live on the web. These webcasts will also be archived and can be easily viewed anytime. For details, see below.

All Council Meetings and Hearings Are Webcast Live

To view all county council meetings and hearings live or archived go to the county's homepage at www.snoco.org and enter "Council Webcasts" into the "Search For" box located in the middle top of the homepage.

Upcoming Budget Panel meetings are listed under "Upcoming Events". Past panel meetings can be found under the "Miscellaneous" heading. To view detailed reports from the first series of panel meetings, click on the appropriate Agenda, and click again on HANDOUTS.

Budget Panels Schedules

The council is approaching its budget-building responsibilities under the broad theme of "Sustaining & Enhancing the Quality of Life for Snohomish County Residents." The three panels reflect the elements of that goal.

Panel 1: "Mobile, Livable & Sustainable Communities," chaired by Councilmember Mike Cooper, will deal with the issues of transportation, mobility, infrastructure, growth management and sustainable communities, as represented by county road services, planning and development services, county facilities, parks and playgrounds, solid waste services, surface water management services, the county airport (Paine Field), information services, the Boundary Review Board and the county's equipment rental and revolving fund, more commonly known as fleet management.

- Panel 1 Meeting Schedule: 9 am - 12 pm: Oct. 14, Oct. 21 & Oct. 28 – this last panel will focus on transportation.

- MORE -

Page 2 -- Budget Panels meeting

Panel 2: “Safe & Healthy Communities,” chaired by Councilmember Dave Gossett, will deal with the issues of public safety, security, public health, affordable housing, economic development and environmental health, as represented by police, court, prosecution and corrections services, indigent legal services, the medical examiner, human services and emergency services.

- Panel 2 Meeting Schedule: 1 - 4 pm: Oct. 15 & Oct. 22.

Panel 3: “Public Accountability,” chaired by Councilmember John Koster, will deal with the issues of long-term fiscal health, mandated versus discretionary spending, building strong county financial reserves, government accountability, and capital improvement plans, as represented by finance and risk management services, human resources, auditor and assessor services, and legislative and executive services.

- Panel 3 Meeting Schedule: 9 am - 12 pm: Oct. 16 & Oct. 23.

All the panel meetings will be held in the Henry M. Jackson Board Room, located on the 8th floor of the Robert J. Drewel Building, on the County Campus at 3000 Rockefeller Ave, Everett. Please call 425-388-3494 to confirm meeting schedules.

Contact the Council

Citizens can also send comments on the budget directly by e-mail to Contact.Council@snoco.org, or by letter to Snohomish County Council, 3000 Rockefeller Ave. M/S 609, Everett, Washington 98201.

Comments on the 2009-2010 biennial budget may also be submitted through the council’s budget commentary web form which can be found by going to the county’s homepage at www.snoco.org and entering “comment of the budget” into the “Search For” box located in the middle top of the homepage. Then click on Comment on the 2009-2010 Recommended Budget, fill out the information requested and enter your comments.

Comments about the 2009-2010 proposed county budget will be made a part of the public record, which includes your name, address, city, state, and zip code.

All Council Meetings and Hearings Are Webcast Live

To view all county council meetings and hearings live or archived go to the county’s homepage at www.snoco.org and enter “Council Webcasts” into the “Search For” box located in the middle top of the homepage.

CONTACT: Fred Bird
Council Public Information Officer
425-388-3873; Cell 206-200-2514
fred.bird@co.snohomish.wa.us