National Police Week, and Peace Officers' Memorial Day declared in Snohomish County

The Snohomish County Council today unanimously approved a resolution designating May 15th through May 21st, 2005 as National Police Week, and May 15th as Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

The resolution notes that members of law enforcement agencies throughout Snohomish County play an essential role in safeguarding the rights and freedoms of our citizens; and it is important that citizens recognize and appreciate the duties, hazards, and sacrifices of law enforcement personnel.

Furthermore, the resolution says members of our law enforcement agencies honor their duty to serve the people by safeguarding life and property, by protecting citizens against violence, disorder, and deception and by protecting the weak against oppression; and that the men and women of the law enforcement agencies in Snohomish County continuously provide a vital public service;
