The Snohomish County Council today unanimously appointed Jeffrey Goodwin to a vacant judgeship in the South Division of Snohomish County Superior Court. Goodwin, an Edmonds attorney in private practice, has a wide range of experience and has served as a pro-tem judge in the District Court. The position was vacated earlier this year when Judge Stephen Dwyer was appointed to the Superior Court.

Goodwin is a partner in the law firm of Goodwin and Zachor. He received his law degree from Seattle University and has practiced law since 1992. He has a background in handling prosecutions, criminal defense, and civil litigation. He must stand for election to the position this fall.

The South Electoral District includes the cities of Lynnwood, Edmonds, Mountlake Terrace, Brier, Woodway, Mill Creek, parts of Bothell and adjacent unincorporated areas.
