CITIZENS CABINET WELCOMES PUBLIC COMMENT ON HOW TO JUMP-START COUNTY ECONOMY

Public comments about how best to grow the local economy are being collected by County Executive Aaron Reardon's Citizens Cabinet, a 19-member group he convened to develop an economic development action plan for the county.

Comments may be submitted through the Citizens Cabinet link on the County Executive page of the county website, at http://www1.co.snohomish.wa.us/Departments/Executive/Information/citizen_cabinet.

"We know that the people who live and work here have great ideas about how to make our communities more economically vibrant," Reardon said. "I look forward to hearing those ideas and seeing how we can incorporate them into a solid economic development plan for Snohomish County."

Written comments also may be sent to the Cabinet via the County Executive Office, 3000 Rockefeller M/S 407, Everett, WA 98201.

The Citizens Cabinet will produce a report in late July that addresses issues in four areas: regulatory reform, taxes and fees, human capital and physical infrastructure.
