Snohomish County to Commemorate Life of 40th President

Snohomish County will mark the life of President Ronald Reagan with two events this week. On Wednesday June 9 at 9:00 a.m., the county council will pass a joint resolution with the executive to declare a Day of Mourning in the county. The day of mourning will be Friday June 11 to coincide with the National Day of Mourning declared by the president. The council meets in the County Administration Building, 3000 Rockefeller Ave, (6th floor) in Everett.

On Friday, there will be a brief ceremony at 12 noon to mark the life of President Reagan. The ceremony will be on the plaza in front of the Snohomish County Courthouse. Details of the ceremony are still being finalized.
