Moments: Steve Klein and Alden Mason Exhibit-Sept. 2-Oct. 7, 2010 Opening reception Thursday, 9/2 from 5-8pm. Gallery exhibition highlights two artists of national and international acclaim, Steve Klein and Alden Mason. Steve works in glass, exploring the fragile state of "balance". he has taught, studied and exhibited throughout the US, the UK, Australia and Taiwan. Alden is a retired UW professor, whose work reflects his appreciation for primitive cultures. Late into his seventies, Mason traveled to New Guinea to live among native tribes. Using Pop Art as a base and drawing with a stick, Mason uses both stick figures and thick strokes to convey aspects of nature and his life experience.
