Q: What is a Temporary Dwelling Permit?

A: It allows you to place a mobile home for relatives who are in need of care or assistance on the same lot as an existing dwelling. The following restrictions apply:

- The temporary dwelling may be occupied by no more than two persons;
- It may not be used as a commercial rental unit;
- It must be situated at least 20 feet from the permanent dwelling on the same lot, and not be located in any required setback of the principal dwelling unit; and
- Adequate screening, landscaping, or other measures must be provided to protect surrounding property values and ensure compatibility with the immediate neighborhood.

Q: Who can qualify to live in a temporary dwelling?

A: Only persons related by blood or marriage, who are elderly or in need of continuous medical assistance.

Q: How do I file for a Temporary Dwelling permit?

A: Complete the following requirements:

- A completed master land use application;
- A written statement by a licensed physician, attesting to the need for constant medical assistance;
- Filing fee; and;
- A detailed plot plan showing the location of the proposed temporary dwelling in relation to the property lines and other structures. Show all structures, driveways, and locations of septic tank/drainfields.

Q: What do I do once the Temporary Dwelling Permit is granted?

A: You may mail it to PDS, M/S 604, 3000 Rockefeller Ave., Everett, WA 98201, or hand-deliver it to the 2nd Floor of the Robert J. Drewel Building.

Q: Do the permits need to be renewed?

A: Yes. You must renew the Temporary Dwelling Permit annually, together with recertification of need, through PDS in the same month of the year in which the initial Temporary Dwelling Permit was issued.

This bulletin is intended only as an information guide. The information may not be complete and is subject to change. For complete legal information, refer to Snohomish County Code.

Q: What if I don't need the Temporary Dwelling Permit any more?

A: You may terminate the permit when the need no longer exists. You simply need to sign an agreement and record it with the Snohomish County Auditor. Agreement forms can be obtained from the PDS by calling 425-388-3632.
