

Evaluation is based on summer water temperatures and dissolved oxygen levels. Good habitat includes streams with temperatures less than 18 degrees C and oxygen greater than 6 mg/l. Impaired streams do not meet these conditions either occasionally or often.

GOOD FISH HABITAT
  SOMETIMES IMPAIRED FOR FISH USE
  OFTEN IMPAIRED FOR FISH USE
  WATER QUALITY NOT EVALUATED

Figure 3. Water Quality Effects on Fish in Snohomish County Watersheds