

Sister of Friar Creek
Planting and Fencing
Project

Landowner with her dogs

Project site before blackberry removal

Brushcutter removing the Himalayan blackberries

Plants staged by the WCC Crew and ready to put into the ground

Volunteers at work and at rest

Old culvert with no bottom

New Bridge

This project was completed courtesy of Thomas and Beverley McMail, Snohomish County Surface Water Management Water Quality, Steward, and Habitat Staff, the Road Maintenance Bridge Crew, Washington Conservation Corps, and Washington State Department of Ecology.

Special thanks to the volunteers: Native Plant Stewards, Sky Valley Elementary School students, Everett Community College Students, 4-H Club members, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts